Medical Readiness for the Internist in an Evolving Military and Geopolitical Climate

This live activity has been designated for 11.5 CME and 11.5 MOC credits.

 ACP American College of Physicians®
Leading Internal Medicine, Improving Lives

Meeting Highlights

- Fellow and Early Care Physician (ECP) poster and podium research competition
- Doctor's Dilemma®
- Panel sessions discussing the pros and cons of important topics in internal medicine
- General internal medicine and specialty breakout sessions
- Air Force and Army chapter meetings and town hall

Dear Colleague,

Join us and your colleagues in internal medicine at the next scientific meeting of the U.S. Army/ U.S. Air Force Chapters of the American College of Physicians, being held September 6–8, 2018, at the Gateway Club on Lackland Air Force Base.

The meeting is a great way for you to recharge, rewind, and reflect with your peers, chapter leaders, and great speakers. Connect with the U.S. Army/U.S. Air Force Chapters' rich source of knowledge content and networking by attending our premier meeting for general internists, subspecialty internists, hospitalists, allied health practitioners, residents, and medical students.

In addition to earning CME credits, this conference is about making personal contacts and getting involved in your chapter. You'll engage with people who know your challenges and can help you find solutions. The opportunities available at this meeting will help you meet not only your needs as a physician, but also the needs of the patients you serve.

To ensure your place at this invaluable meeting, register now by visiting us online at airforcechapter.acponline.org or at armychapter.acponline.org.

We look forward to seeing you in San Antonio!

Sincerely,

LTC Cristin A. Mount, MD, FACP
ACP Governor, Army Chapter

Matthew B. Carroll, MD, FACP, FACR
ACP Governor, Air Force Chapter

Meeting Information

Resident/Fellow Members' Activities

Clinical vignettes, quality improvement projects and research prepared by Resident/Fellow Members will be presented at the meeting. Resident winners are eligible for entrance into the national competition during Internal Medicine Meeting 2019 to be held in Philadelphia, PA.

Original clinical vignettes, quality improvement, or research projects are eligible. Most of the work is expected to have been completed by the Resident/Fellow. Faculty mentors are strongly encouraged to assist with literature review, editing, and proofreading, but not rewriting the entire abstract. Clinical vignettes, quality improvement, and research that have been submitted or presented at local or other regional meetings (e.g., a state ACP Chapter meeting) remain eligible, provided that it did not win an award at the regional level (any local/hospital level award remains eligible). Clinical vignettes, performance improvement, and research that have been presented at a national meeting (National ACP or subspecialty meetings) are ineligible. Clinical vignettes, performance improvement, and research that have been published are ineligible, except for those published only in a hospital-level publication. Publication clearance is the responsibility of the submitter.

For Residents: The first call for abstracts for the 2018 ACP U.S. Army/U.S. Air Force Conference went out to Program Directors and their affiliated staff in mid-April 2018. As in years past, there will be 3 categories in this competition: Research, Quality Improvement and Clinical Vignette. Also, consistent with last year's guidelines, we are asking that the program leadership at each institution collect abstract submissions for their respective residents and select the top abstract in each of these 3 categories. Please then submit these 3 abstracts to the following email address: Army.airforce.acp.abstracts@gmail.com. The remaining abstracts from your residents will then be eligible for submission for presentation at a subspecialty breakout session (more details regarding this process will come at a later date). PLEASE ensure that you designate to which category the abstract will be submitted. There will be a 450-word limit (not including title and authors). The final deadline for submission will be COB Tuesday, June 12, 2018. For specific questions/concerns, please contact Captain (Dr.) Kelly Chohonis at kelly.e.chohonis.mil@mail.mil or Major (Dr.) Andrew Skabelund at andrew.j.skabelund.mil@mail.mil.

For Fellows and Early Career Physicians (ECP): The first call for abstracts also went out in mid-April 2018. As in years past, there will be 3 categories for each of these competitions: Research, Quality Improvement, and Clinical Vignette. PLEASE ensure that you designate to which category the abstract will be submitted. There will be a 450-word limit (not including title and authors). Please submit all abstracts to the following email address: Army.airforce.acp.abstracts@gmail.com. The final deadline for submission will be COB Tuesday, June 12, 2018. For specific questions/concerns, please contact Captain (Dr.) Kelly Chohonis at kelly.e.chohonis.mil@mail.mil or Major (Dr.) Andrew Skabelund at andrew.j.skabelund.mil@mail.mil.

Learning Objectives

At the conclusion of this activity, the participant will be able to:

- Apply updated knowledge of internal medicine to clinical practice in the military.
- Improve clinical practice by incorporating major new developments in subspecialty medicine.
- Understand concepts important to physician wellness and avoidance of burnout.

Who should attend?

- General internists
- Subspecialty internists
- Family practitioners
- Fellows in subspecialty training
- Hospitalists
- Residents
- Medical students interested in internal medicine

Chapter Awards

It is with distinct pleasure that the Air Force and Army Chapters will present recipients from their respective chapters with Laureate Awards. Laureate Award winners are long-standing and loyal supporters of the College who have rendered distinguished service to their chapters and community and have upheld the high ideals and professional standards for which the College is known. The award will be presented during the Doctor's Dilemma® and accompanying social hour.

Additional Chapter specific awards will also be presented, so please congratulate our award winners at our meeting.

CME Accreditation and MOC Points

The American College of Physicians is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The American College of Physicians designates this live activity for a maximum of 11.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Successful completion of this CME activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 11.5 Medical Knowledge MOC points in the American Board of Internal Medicine's (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. Participants will earn MOC points equivalent to the amount of CME credits claimed for the activity. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.

It is recommended that reservations be made by attendees before the cutoff date of Friday, August 3, 2018. The rooms are available on a first-come, first-serve basis, so make your reservation as early as possible. Reservations after this date will be accepted for attendees on a space and rate available basis.

Transportation

A shuttle to and from the Marriott Plaza San Antonio will be available once a day, leaving 45 minutes before the first conference event of the day and returning at the end of the conference day. There is no cost for this shuttle.

Meals

Food is available at the Gateway Club Dining Hall, purchased on your own. There will be morning and afternoon hors d'oeuvres with other snacks during the conference. On Friday evening, there will be a social hour during the Doctor's Dilemma® competition with presentation of Laureate and other achievement awards to distinguished members of both Chapters. Please join us for this special part of the conference to honor these prominent Chapter members.

Uniform of the Day

The uniform of the day for Thursday and Friday will be Air Battle Uniform (Air Force) or Army Combat Uniform/Operational Camouflage Pattern (Army). Army speakers should be in Army Service Uniform. Air Force speakers may be in their Air Battle Uniform.

On Saturday, attendees may wear business casual civilian attire in anticipation of travel back to duty station.
