Dear Colleague,

Join us and your colleagues in internal medicine at the next scientific meeting of the Oklahoma Chapter of the American College of Physicians, being held October 12–13, 2018, at the University of Oklahoma–Tulsa Schusterman Learning Center.

The meeting is a great way for you to recharge, rewind, and reflect with your peers, chapter leaders, and great speakers. Connect with the Oklahoma Chapter's rich source of knowledge content and networking by attending our premier meeting for general internists, subspecialty internists, hospitalists, allied health practitioners, residents, and medical students.

In addition to earning CME credits, this conference is about making personal contacts and getting involved in your chapter. You'll engage with people who know your challenges and can help you find solutions. The opportunities available at this meeting will help you meet not only your needs as a physician, but also the needs of the patients you serve.

To ensure your place at this invaluable meeting, register now by visiting us online at okchapter.acponline.org.

We look forward to seeing you in Tulsa.

Sincerely,

Michael S. Bronze, MD, MACP
ACP Governor, Oklahoma Chapter

Welcome and Residents Reunion Reception

All meeting attendees and guests are invited to attend the Welcome and Residents Reunion Reception on Friday evening beginning at 4:45 p.m. The reception will be held at the University of Oklahoma–Tulsa Schusterman Center and medical students, residents, physicians, and guests will have an opportunity to network.

Meeting Information

Resident/Fellow Members' Activities

Clinical vignettes, posters, and research papers prepared by Resident/Fellow Members will be presented at the meeting.

Winners will receive cash awards and be eligible for entrance into the national competition held during Internal Medicine Meeting 2019. (One winner from each campus receives up to $1,000 toward expenses for the 2019 Internal Medicine Meeting in Philadelphia.) Contact Krishna Baradhi, MD, at krishna-baradhi@ouhsc.edu for information about entering the Resident/Fellow Members' Competition. Deadline for submissions is September 15, 2018.

Learning Objectives

At the conclusion of this activity, the participant will be able to:

- Improve clinical practice by incorporating major new developments in hepatitis C, hypertension, and novel anticoagulants.
- Understand recent advances in internal medicine.
- Diagnose and manage under-recognized stroke risk factors
- Increase confidence in performing clinical skills.
- Increase knowledge for physician well-being and professional satisfaction

Who Should Attend?

- General internists
- Subspecialty internists
- Fellows in subspecialty training
- Hospitalists
- Residents
- Medical students interested in internal medicine

Chapter Excellence Award Winner

We are pleased to announce that our Chapter is the recipient of a 2017 Chapter Excellence Award. The Chapter Excellence Award recognizes those chapters that excel in reaching the standards for managing a chapter, such as communicating to members, instituting Medical Students' and Resident/Fellow Members' activities, and advancing and recruiting members. A Chapter Excellence certificate will be awarded at the meeting.

CME Accreditation

The American College of Physicians is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The American College of Physicians designates this live activity for a maximum of 7.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™]. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Successful completion of this CME activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 7.25 medical knowledge MOC points in the American Board of Internal Medicine's (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. Participants will earn MOC points equivalent to the amount of CME credits claimed for the activity. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.

"Silent" Atrial Fibrillation: An Undiagnosed and Under-recognized Stroke Risk Factor

The below event is not part of the official ACP Oklahoma Chapter Annual Scientific Meeting Education program. CME will be provided by USF Health.

- 1-hour CME-certified accredited by USF Health
- A certificate with the CME credit will be handed out onsite, post-meeting to all attendees who fill out an evaluation

Program Overview

The proposed CME-certified and MOC-eligible educational initiative is designed to encourage physicians to be more aggressive in diagnosing paroxysmal and asymptomatic atrial fibrillation (AFib), and managing those AFib patients who are at high risk for ischemic stroke. Primary care physicians and associated healthcare professionals are being tasked with better diagnosing asymptomatic AFib and initiating appropriate anticoagulant therapy in those patients at risk for stroke.

Learning Objectives

- Identify patients who have high stroke-associated risk and undertake appropriate long-term monitoring.
- Use the CHA2DS2-VASc risk assessment score as a tool to determine the appropriate course of action to manage diagnosed atrial fibrillation.
- Consider appropriate oral anticoagulation for patients with newly diagnosed atrial fibrillation and a high CHA2DS2-VASc risk score

Supported by an educational grant from the Bristol-Myers Squibb and Pfizer Alliance.

Jointly provided by USF Health and Rockpointe.
